

Florida Home Builders Association
Woman of Distinction

The award honors a woman who is: active in the Home Builders Association and the building industry; a positive role model for other women in the industry; a leader in their company and at their local HBA; a “take-charge” woman with innovative ideas who is willing to share and mentor with others to make a difference in their industry and/or local HBA; a proven leader outside the HBA that draws positive attention to the HBA; respected inside and outside the HBA; and the personification of positive values. Award recipients are selected by an FHBA Senior Officer, a Local HBA Executive Officer and the SEBC Committee Chair and Vice Chair. The award winner is announced during the Fall Leadership Conference. Application forms are available at www.fhba.com.
