For Immediate Release:

Attorney General: Ashley Moody
Agriculture Commissioner: Matt Caldwell

“This a once in a decade opportunity, where each elected Cabinet position was up for re-election; absent any solidified incumbent, produced a slate of candidates committed to the idea of home affordability“ said Suzanne Graham, FHB PAC Chair. ”We are proud to endorse those candidates committed to work with .”

Florida Home Builders Association (FHBA) President, Bill Truex, suggests it is a rare candidate who can balance all the factors that contribute to a favorable home building environment. According to Truex, “it is not often when we can identify someone who understands how to balance the necessary ingredients of less regulation, a dynamic workforce, storm resiliency, a sound environment, fraud enforcement and affordability. The FHB PAC did an excellent job in their selection of candidates who not only demonstrate an understanding of critical issues to the industry, but also the ability to effectuate public policy towards the fulfillment of that favorable environment.”

Candidates offer their gratitude for the endorsement given by FHB PAC:

Governor, Ron DeSanits

“I thank the Florida Home Builders Association for their endorsement,” said Ron DeSantis, Republican gubernatorial candidate. “We share a common belief that cutting bureaucratic red tape and eliminating unreasonable regulation will help our great state prosper.
